Chardonnay
YAKIMA VALLEY

ALICE HENNING

Chardonnay 2013

This is the ninth vintage donated by Seymour Vineyard, which is owned by Wyckoff Farms. This slightly cooler region of the Yakima Valley is perfect for Chardonnay. It allows for longer hang times which yields ripe fruit and ample acidity.

This Chardonnay was fermented in new French Oak barrels with partial malolactic fermentation and stirred on the lees for three months. Complex, with just a hint of oak, the wine reveals bright, fruit-forward aromas – melon, lemon, and pear. It delivers notes of spice, sea salt, and minerality with a creamy mouth feel.

Suggested pairings: Seafood, cream sauces, and cheese plates. An excellent choice for holiday fare.
